

Ocean Shipping and Climate Change

- International shipping emitted ~2.7% of the global emissions of carbon dioxide in 2007
- In general, shipping is a very energy efficient mode of goods movement
- IMO has made strides to encourage energy efficiency of the world's fleet
- Design Improvements – hull, propeller, alternative fuels
- Operational – logistics, voyage optimization, energy management

Matson®

Matson®